About the Institute

United Institute of Management – Faculty of Undergraduate Studies (UIM-FUGS) is a prestigious management institution dedicated to undergraduate studies. Situated near the sacred banks of the Ganges, UIM-FUGS is part of the United Group of Institutions, which has been a pillar of academic excellence since 1951. The institute is committed to fostering leadership, sustainability, and cultural values through holistic education.

About the FDP

The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Foundations and Emerging Trends in Organizational Behavior aims to provide a deep understanding of Organizational Behavior (OB), enhancing teaching methodologies, and integrating emerging trends relevant to today's business environment.

This six-day intensive program is designed to equip educators with modern pedagogical tools, experiential learning techniques, and real-world applications to make teaching more engaging and impactful.

Objectives of the FDP

The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Foundations and Emerging Trends in Organizational Behavior aims to:

1. Strengthen core OB concepts like leadership, motivation, and culture.
 - Explore emerging trends such as remote work and digital transformation.
 - Promote research orientation and scholarly contributions.
 - Align with NEP 2020, emphasizing OB's role in institutional growth.
 - Offer experiential learning through expert sessions and industry visit.
 - Equip educators with practical strategies for leadership, collaboration, and innovation.

Highlights of the FDP

- Get AICTE-Recognized Certificate
- Participate in expert-led, practical training sessions
- Explore OB in Indian Knowledge System (IKS)
- Understand NEP 2020 and institutional impact
- Learn teamwork, group dynamics, and conflict resolution
